KAREN

I want to give you an update on the health of 10-year-old Karen who has leukemia. Through your generous donations I have been able to help the family to purchase medicines and groceries. Karen's health has taken its toll on the parents Eddy and Anna. Karen has had days in tremendous pain and that has meant leaving the house at 5am to take her to the Children's Cancer Hospital in the main city where she receives treatment. The hospital has now informed them that there is nothing more they can do, so she is now on opioid pain killers. Guatemala has the highest cost for medicines in the whole of Central America, and the family just cannot afford to purchase them. I want to give Karen the best palliative care by purchasing these medicines for her. If you would like to help you can send donations to the address below marked "Karen". The photos are posted with the parent's permission.

MY HEALTH

A friend recently said to me the following, "Jeff, with all the accidents and operations you've been through, you deserve to retire early." I had to really think about that! I just could not see myself "retiring." But I asked the Lord what He wants me to do. The Lord has never spoken to me audibly, but the Lord has spoken to me many times in my life through my spirit. I am reminded of John 18:37 – "Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice." And John 10:27 – "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow me." My health recently has not been good, and I am moving about a lot slower, but I am still able to do many things, teaching in the church, and helping many families who have great needs. I love my work here, and I love my larger family. I believe my “retirement” will be when the Lord calls me home.

CHURCH

The church continues to grow strong in the Word. My priority for them is evangelism. I believe this to be so urgent in these end times. This country is Roman Catholic, and sometimes people get quite upset when we are sharing the Good News with them. But I have grown to love many Catholics and by building relationships with them, it is much easier sharing Jesus with them.

Our latest church plant in the town of Jocotenango meets in a house twice a week for church service, and a children’s meeting every Saturday. Below are photos of the children.

PRAYER REQUESTS

1. Health for myself and members of our church.
2. Prayers and finance for Karen.
3. Helps Fund
4. Personal finances. Medical costs.

God bless you all.
